SCHOOL

FOREWORD

When we are graduated we shall no longer be a part of Narund High School. This school is no longer ours for another class will take the place we have left vacant. We have published the "Lone Pine" so that we shall have before us the memories of our high school days. We have assembled in this volume our thoughts of happy times and sad ones, of play and study, of friendship and love. It has been our pleasure to make the annual and we hope you will be happy in receiving it; proud to possess it.

Lucile Stone Riegel

Lucile Stone Riegel, 92, of Route 1, Brookneal, died Tuesday afternoon, Aug. 31, 1993, at Berry Hill Nursing Home in South Boston. She was the wife of the late John Jacob Riegel.

She was born in Campbell County May 25, 1901, daughter of the late Charles B. Stone and Callie Rosser Stone. She was a member of Ebenezer Baptist Church, where she served as a Sunday School teacher and was a member of the WMU.

She loved people and provided an example of true service to others throughout her life. She did this through individual acts of compassion and by being active in many community affairs, including the Woman's Club, the DAR, Future Homemakers of America, Future Farmers of America and the Association of Retired Teachers. She taught science and home economics in the Campbell County school system for many years.

She is survived by two daughters and sons-in-law, Anne R. and David L. Merricks of Brookneal and Evelyn R. and John B. Bell of Rustburg; one brother, Burnley T. Stone of Roanoke; three grandchildren, David M. Merricks of Goochland, Karen M. Bishoff of St. Petersburg Beach, Fla., and J. Marc Merricks of Brookneal; also five great-grandchildren.

Graveside services will be conducted Thursday at 11 a.m. at Ebenezer Baptist Church cemetery by the Rev. Johnny Roberts.

The family will be at the home of David and Anne Merricks in Brookneal.

Memorials may be made to the Patrick Henry Boys Plantation or Ebenezer Baptist Church.

Henderson Funeral Home, Brookneal, is in charge of arrangements.
